Day 2 BANGKOK [HALF-DAY ROYAL GRAND PALACE]

Half-day Royal Grand Palace tour. Pick-up Hotel Century Park around 06:30 am. Transfers included. Meals not included. Dress code: smart casual: visitors should not wear sleeveless shirts, shorts, short skirts or skimpy clothing when visiting temples, religious or official buildings. No flip flops or open shoes are allowed. The Royal Grand Palace, with its collection of pavilions and golden spires, can only be described as an oriental masterpiece. Inside the Royal Chapel, there is the Emerald Buddha, which has been carved from a solid piece of jade. The palace is a true architectural masterpiece, consisting of several buildings from the outside and a magical inside, which was used as a royal residence from the 18th century to the mid-20th century. It is without any doubt a national reference and possibly the most visited royal monument of Thailand, which shouldn't be missed. To round off the tour, we call in at a local lapidary factory and showroom where you will be able to get locally made jewellery, handicrafts and silk at competitive prices. Note: Parts of the Royal Grand Palace and/or Wat Phra Kaew can be closed during special royal or Buddhist ceremonies and during visits of foreign heads of state.

Day 3 BANGKOK

Indulge in a tasty breakfast before a full day to discover Bangkok on your own pace. Alternatively, you can choose to go on one of the following Optional Tours (not included)

Half-Day Railway Market and Damnoen Saduak Floating Market – English (Available on Monday, Wednesday, Friday): Duration 5 hours. Start at 06:30 am to 11:30 am. Pick-up Hotel Century Park around 06:00 am. Transfers included. Meals not included. Dress code: Casual. Comfortable and light clothing is recommended. This half-day tour from Bangkok takes you to two of the most amazing local markets, both of which are extremely most famous in Thailand. The Maeklong Railway Market or “Talad Rom Hoop” as it is said in Thai, witness the action of the stallholders whisking their stock away as to allow the train to pass, and all this is done in several minutes before the train is due to pass through. The process happens so quickly that you will feel absolutely thrilled from this unique moment. On the way to the floating market, take a visit at a Palm Sugar Farm – look around the farmhouse and see the process of how palm sugar is made. You will also be able to taste a few things which have been freshly prepared. Head out to the floating market by long-tailed boat, admire the canal and the local plantation as you cruise along with it. At the floating market, you are free to explore the market at your leisure. Experience the colourful market and watch the merchants as they paddle along the congested canals in sturdy canoes laden with fresh fruits and vegetables, selling to shoppers on the riverbank.
